BIG LAND STEALS UNDER THE GLASS

HIGH SCHOOL AND R. L. C.'S TODAY

Railroads And Individuals Engaged In Thiefs

Government Will Spare No One and Some Federal Officials May Be Affected.

MANY MILLIONS ARE INVOLVED

Salt Lake City, Nov. 29.—The grip of the government and of justice is tightening slowly about the organized gangs which, it is alleged, have for years, with the connivance of the land department, robbed the public domain of coal, mineral and timber lands valued at many millions of dollars. In the end, it is stated, every member of these gangs, whether he be a plain citizen of the United States or whether he occupies high official position, will be made to answer in the criminal courts.

While the interstate commerce commission is taking testimony here tending to show that the Rio Grande railroad and its constituent companies, the Utah Fuel company and the Pleasant Valley Coal company, have been securing by fraudulent means all of the coal lands in the state of Utah and consequently building up their monopoly in this line, the federal grand jury here is awaiting the outcome of the hearing with a view to gathering all of the guilty ones into its net.

M. C. Burch, special assistant attorney of the department of justice, is preparing to bring suits in Wyoming for the recovery of many thousands of acres of land. He already has begun five suits in this state against the Denver and Rio Grande railroad, the Utah Fuel company and the Pleasant Valley Coal company, seeking to recover more than 20,000 acres alleged to have been taken illegally from the government. Owing to the statute of limitations the government cannot go back beyond a period of six years, but the land frauds already uncovered and which will be disclosed during this period are so stupendous as almost to stagger the imagination.

The peculations of which the government complains have been perpetrated in Wyoming, Utah, Colorado, Montana, New Mexico, California, Oregon and possibly in other states. The robberies of the public domain have been almost as extensive, it is charged, in timber lands as in mineral lands. For example, there is pending against the Denver and Rio Grande railroad an injunction restraining that company from selling or cutting any more of the timber lands claimed to have been taken illegally by it. It is charged, for example, that this company has acquired illegally 120,000,000 feet of lumber in the state of Colorado alone.

Marcus Daly Is Accused.

Marcus Daly, with his Anaconda Copper company, is charged with stealing 110,000,000 feet of timber, and Hyde and Benson of California, are about to be tried for stealing 50,000 acres of government lands in sixteen different states.

That such enormous frauds, extending through a long period of years, could not have been perpetrated without the complicity of the land department is said to be a patent fact.

The organization against the government seems to have been stronger and more systematically carried out in Wyoming than in any other state. During the hearing here today a glimpse of the real power behind the throne was given when it was stated by government land agents that they had been compelled to see Senator Francis E. Warren regarding official business of the land department. Senator Warren is charged with having ruined the land office for a number of years.

The evidence today showed that special agents of the government land department had been protesting for several years against the fraudulent acquisitions of lands in Colorado, Wyoming and Utah, but without avail, and that in several instances they were either suspended, transferred or told flatly that the irregularities of which they complained were none of their business.

Honesty is a virtue of which men boast most when they have the least of it.

Struggle For Local Gridiron Championship.

More Enthusiasm Over Football This Season Than Ever Before in History.

LARGE ATTENDANCE EXPECTED

More enthusiasm has been aroused in football games this season than ever before, and the game this afternoon between the High school and R. L. C. teams probably will be largely attended.

In the High school, the girls are enthusiastic rooters for their gridiron heroes but the R. L. C.'s have many admirers in the gender sex.

For the actual participants in the game on both teams, Thanksgiving dinner has had to be postponed until after the game. Neither of the stern captains will allow his men to eat heartily just before the game. They will have 6 o'clock dinner and the victorious team will not need any other seasoning in their food, but the fact of victory.

The two teams line up as follows:

High School—Cheek, Cave, Scott, Elliott, Burton, Reeder, Bagby, Hally, St. John, Fisher, Jones.

R. L. C.'s—Beyer, Wickliffe, Hayes, Elliott, Cope, Coburn, Orme, Owen, Henneberger, Martin, Kidd, Sights.

Negro Department Store.

New York, Nov. 29.—A new enterprise along commercial and sociological lines is that of the Metropolitan Mercantile and Realty company, organized with a capital of $1,000,000, and which proposes to operate a department store here for and by negroes. A large building at Forty-sixth street and Eighth avenue has been purchased and several hundred negroes will be employed. No white help will be used, and an appeal will be made for negro trade only. The company now operates several similar stores in the south.

MANY HUNTING

WOODS RESOUND WITH REPORTS OF SHOTGUNS.

Everything Closed Except Such Institutions as Are Necessary to Public.

Hunting is being generally observed in Paducah. The railroad shops, banks, schools, postoffice and public offices with few exceptions are closed in observance of the day. Many stores opened this morning for business but closed at noon to give employees a half holiday. Mills and factories of all kinds are closed and only work of the most urgent necessity is being done today. Work on the sewerage system, street car tracks and on concrete pavements, which cannot well be delayed, is in progress but not a full force is employed.

Hunters are taking advantage of the holiday and the woods are full of them. Among the prominent hunters to go up the Louisville division this morning were W. H. Rankin and son; of the Langstaff-Orme Manufacturing company, and W. McCabe, chief dispatcher of the Louisville division of the Illinois Central.

FORCE WORKS ALL NIGHT

Filling in Paving Between Car Tracks on Broadway.

In order to rush the work of putting Broadway in condition between Fourth and Fifth streets, an extra force of laborers worked all last night. This morning but a few yards of concrete remained to be spread.

The negroes' songs and shouts kept things lively all night long. Hot coffee was served them.

There is only one kind of a paper circulation statement that is worth any consideration and that is the daily detailed statement. The Sun is the only Paducah paper printing such a statement.

MAROONED

GEORGE ROBERTSON AND PARTY IN A PREDICAMENT.

Surrounded by Water 25 Miles Across and Gums Only Reliance for Food.

TO HIS WIFE

HON. GIVEN CAMPBELL WILLS OF FATHER AND MOTHER, BLIND STREET MUSICIANS.

Directs Her to Give Each Child Gold Watch to Cost $100—Wiltlessed by Brother.

MANAGER

Dutiful Son, Overhauled by Police Deposits Watch for Their Board—Paid His Own.

St. Louis, Nov. 29.—The will of Given Campbell, veteran member of the St. Louis bar, who died at the home of his son, Dr. Given Campbell, 3429 Morgan street, last Tuesday night, provides that his wife, Susan Elizabeth Campbell, shall invest $100 in a watch for each of his children—Given, Susan W. and James Campbell. The residue of the estate goes to Mrs. Campbell. A clause in the will states:

"I bestow my blessing upon my children and wish them at all times to love, cherish and honor their dear mother and each other, and to look to their mother, in whom I have implicit faith and confidence, for counsel and advice in every contingency of life."

The will was executed July 1, 1885 and witnessed by O'Neill Ryan, now judge of the St. Louis circuit court; William H. Bliss, former United States district attorney at St. Louis, and now in Paris, France; and Judge James Campbell of Paducah, Ky., a younger brother of the deceased.

FIGHT DRAW

TWENTY TERRIFIC ROUNDS FOR BURNS AND O'BRIEN.

Burns Assumes Aggressive From the Start, but O'Brien Rallies To Ward Finish.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 29.—"Philadelphia Jack" O'Brien and Tommy Burns, of Los Angeles, last night fought 20 terrific rounds to a draw.

When the end came it found the two men in the center of the ring engaged in terrible struggle. The whole upper part of their bodies were covered with blood.

Burns, who fought like a bull dog from the beginning to the end, was always on the aggressive, crowding his opponent to the ropes and frequently rushing him about the ring almost in flight.

Towards the end of the fight O'Brien seemed to rally and did some effective work. Both were severely punished.

A shift in railroad scenes caused a white man to shoot the wrong person at Cecilia, Ky., Tuesday night. John Pitts, a colored student brakeman, was brought to the city last night to the Illinois Central hospital with a wound in the calf of his right leg received from a shotgun in the hands of a white man. The regular brakeman at Cecilia got into a quarrel with a white man at the station, and the white man left to get his gun.

When he got back the regular brakeman had left and John Pitts, a student brakeman had arrived on a freight train. Mistaking Pitts for the man he had quarreled with, the white man blazed away with the shotgun.

Police Gambling Graft.

New York, Nov. 29.—The investigation of gambling houses in this city, which has been in progress for some time, was given added interest today when "The" Allen, one of the most widely known pool-room operators in this city went to the district attorney's office in response to subpoenas.

This procedure was the result of the search of "The" Allen's house in Eighth street yesterday and the seizure of correspondence which it is said implicates various police officials of varying degrees.

LLOYD LOOKS FOR BASEBALL REVIVAL

Hopes To Induce Backer To Take The Team.

Association Will Donate Park but Will Not Assume Expenses of Indians.

WAITING FOR WARM WEATHER.

Will Paducah have a league ball team next year? is a question bothering local fans even this early in the winter season.

Chief Lloyd, the veteran manager, can throw no light on the subject, and is only waiting for the first touch of warm weather to feel the pulse of local sports and learn whether there is any baseball fever in their systems. "If someone will put up the coin I will have a team here," Lloyd declared. "Mr. Keller stated to me several weeks ago that the association would not support a team this season, but that if I could find a backer—some one to stand the expense—he would assure me that the baseball park would be donated.

"In plain words I will have the park gratis if I put in a team. What I want is some one who will stand for the expenses. It means a great deal, but with the proper support baseball can be made to pay in Paducah as it has in years gone by. I have convictions that this season will be a good one. Interest lagged last season all over the country, even in the big leagues, to a certain extent. I think this year will see a revival."

Frankfort Call Sold.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 29.—The Frankfort Call, edited for years by the late John B. Dryden, has been sold by the executor to W. P. Walton, of Lexington, editor of the Kentucky Journal. Mr. Walton will discontinue publication of the paper. It had no plant, being printed by the George A. Lewis Publishing company. This leaves the state capital with but one daily paper.

LAST DINNER

IN PADUCAH WILL BE FEAST FOR FEDERAL PRISONERS.

Train Schedule Prevents Marshal Taking Them Away Before Big Meal in Jail.

It will be with well filled stomachs that H. H. Davis, Frank R. Richards and Wallace Woolfolk, three federal prisoners at the county jail, start on their journey to the government prison today. William Blades, the deputy United States marshal, arrived this morning on the early train from Louisville, and by a fortunate schedule of trains, the prisoners did not miss the Thanksgiving dinner they had been anticipating for several days.

Davis got six years in the Atlanta prison for counterfeiting, Richards got one year for breaking into the post office at Mexico, Ky., and his partner, Woolfolk who received stolen stamps knowing they had been stolen got six months.

RELIGIOUS RELICS

Found in Egypt Are Thought to Be Important.

London, Nov. 29.—Religious relics and documents of value relating to Jesus and the new testament have been brought to light in Egypt. The most important find is a fragment of the new gospel, containing 45 lines, written on vellum, describing the visit Jesus and his disciples to the temple in Jerusalem. Other finds include an unknown version of the acts of the gospel of St. John.

Marries Miss Brooklyn.

New York, Nov. 29.—Theodore Barrett, the young Louisville millionaire, who figured recently as a victim of a gambling loss of $62,000 to Nat Goodwin, the actor, when they cut cards for $2,000 a cut, again is in the limelight. Today Barrett was married to Miss Brooklyn, who appeared in several musical plays.

Feltner Is Discharged.
Lexington, Ky., Nov. 29.—At Breathittville, Lee county, this afternoon, Moses Feltner, of Hamilton, O., formerly of Breathitt county, was dismissed by Circuit Judge Riddle on the charge of confederating to secure the assassination of Judge James Harris. This case had been called three times and the commonwealth's witnesses failed to appear.

OWENSBORO SMALL BESIDE PADUCAH

Nearly Twice As Many Men Employed Here.

Not including over thousand at Illinois Central Shops and Yards.

LOCAL PAYROLL MUCH LARGER.

A few Paducah people appreciate the importance of the city as a manufacturing center, and few, too, appreciate what this business is to the city. Paducah has made great strides in the past five years in the number of factories, the increase in value of the finished product, and every other item entering into the cost of productions.

A comparison between Paducah's manufacturing interests and those of Owensboro, the only Kentucky city in this section that rivals it, is interesting.

Manufacturing industries—Paducah 84, Owensboro 63.

Invested—Paducah $4,393,176, Owensboro $3,327,263.

Wage Earners—Paducah 2,841, Owensboro 1,418.

Wages—Paducah $1,185,255, Owensboro $514,008.

Paducah pays for raw products and materials $1,843,201, Owensboro $2,025,300.

The value of products—Paducah $4,443,223, Owensboro $4,187,700.

Owensboro makes a splendid showing in the comparison of the value of its finished products, but when it is taken in consideration that the character of goods it manufactures cost more to make and sell for a great deal more than Paducah's products, it is easily accounted for.

One-third larger than Owensboro, Paducah has twice as many employees and pays out twice as much for laborers. The wages paid out by the Illinois Central at the shops are not figured in these statistics, so if the number of railroad employees and its pay roll were considered the showing made by Paducah would be much better, as the Illinois Central employs over 1,200 men and pays out $1,000,000 a year in wages.

ASSISTANT PASTOR.

First Baptist Church Will Secure One Immediately.

On account of the growth of the First Baptist church an assistant pastor is to be procured immediately. This was decided last evening at the prayer meeting of the church, when the deacons recommended that the assistant be procured. The congregation by a unanimous vote concurred in this recommendation and the following committee was named to secure the assistant: Joseph E. Potter, John R. Puryear, J. T. Reddick, W. E. Covington, L. L. Beabout and Rev. Thompson.

Threatens to Kill John D.

New York, Nov. 29.—Charged with threatening to kill John D. Rockefeller unless he paid her a million dollars. Mrs. Rose Delim Beauvois Handfield, 40 years of age, was arrested today in front of the office of the Guardian Trust company, in lower Broadway. Mrs. Handfield is charged with having forced herself into the office of Mr. Rockefeller's secretary last Friday and declared she wanted a million dollars, and that if she did not get it forthwith, she would kill Mr. Rockefeller and burn down the building where the company's offices are located.

RIVER NEWS

Thanksgiving being a national holiday every clerk Uncle Sam has took a day off. Consequently no weather telegrams or river stages were sent today. The river fell here in the last 24 hours 4, the stage this morning being 32. The wharf from the ways to the dry docks was as quiet as Sunday and what few wagons did straggle down there with freight received scanty attention from the wharfboat officers, who are human like the rest of us, and were dreaming of turkey and dressing.

The Dick Fowler was the only boat which did not run today. The trip to Cairo was abandoned because the landing keepers down the river would be away and it would have been useless to make the trip. On account of missing two days in the earlier part of the week, the George Cowling made the regular trips today as did the Royal.

Fred Booton, chief engineer of the St. Louis and Tennessee River Packet company arrived in the city from St. Louis yesterday and after looking over the City of Memphis ordered repairs, which will make the repairers hurry if that boat wants to enter the Tennessee river trade on the next trip of the Clyde. The wheel will be taken off today and new brasses as well as exten-

THEATRICAL NOTES

Greeted by Large Audience.
A large audience gathered at The Kentucky theater to witness the performance of the DePew-Burdette Stock company. This company played here several weeks ago and scored a big hit. Several new members have been added to the cast and the company is much improved. The vanderbilt acts were all new. The Wheeler sisters in a dancing specialty and the marvelous Vado in a juggling act, scored big hits. Last night's play was "A Quaker Tragedy," and was presented in a manner that would do credit to a higher priced attraction. Tonight they will present "When the Bell Tolls," with all special scenery and costumes. "A Home-spun Heart," beautiful rural drama by Hal Reid, will be presented for the Thanksgiving matinee. A turkey will be given away at each performance.

"Fantana" Saturday.

"Fantana," the new Japanese comedy, has more big musical hits than any musical comedy that has ever been produced. The Messrs. Shubert have engaged one of the best, if not the best musical and singing aggregation now in America. The comedy of the piece is in such well known hands as Harry Mac Donough, Georgia Bryton, William Blaisdell, and others of a like calibre, while the baritone is that popular and well known actor, Charles Swickard. The rest of the parts are taken by the following well known entertainers: James F. Sullivan, Charles Clark, Edith French, Josephine Newman, Norma Bell, Pearl Traw, Marie Hampton, Mayme Dupont, Jeanne Gray, Frances Sears, Hahl Atkinson, Merril Day and Jane Patterson, and an exceptionally beautiful chorus of seventy-five. The entire production is under the sole supervision of Mr. R. H. Burnside, the general stage manager of the Messrs. Shubert's attractions. At The Kentucky Saturday matinee and night.

"The Land of Nod."

"The Land of Nod," the Will J. Block Amusement company's big musical extravaganza, comes to The Kentucky theater Monday night, December 3, after a record run of 27 weeks in Chicago. "The Land of Nod" is different. It is a musical comedy, but has a pretty, original development of a rather familiar idea. It represents the dream of a little girl, who falls asleep among her playfellows, and being a dream there is no limit to the license granted the librettist. The scenes are in the land of Nod. The first act represents a landscape with a peppermint river, balloon trees, mushroom towers, candy bridge, with a house of cards and dominos in the foreground, the palace of the King and Queen of Hearts, who have a young prince, Jack of Hearts, who falls in love with the little dreamer when she is transported to dreamland. The second act is in Nightmare Palace the home of the Sandman, who is the enemy of the King of Hearts, takes him captive, and for a time subjects him and his fellows to cruel terrors. The organization numbers eighty people, and the principal members of the cast are Ursula March, Adele Oswald, Anna McNabb, Emily Huff, Knox Wilson, Nell McNeill, George Fox, Allyn Roberts, George McKissock and others.

"Isle of Spice."

B. C. Whitney's musical comedy company, having created itself with a highly successful run at the Majestic theater, New York City, will play an engagement here at The Kentucky January 5th, presenting the "Isle of Spice." ## Daily Thought.

"The best thanksgiving is a wise and happy use of our blessings."

BEST TOWN IN KENTUCKY.

The best town in Kentucky. That is the description of Paducah current in Louisville and the big cities equidistant from the "Pride of the Purchase." That is the reputation up to which we must strive to live, and that is the character given our city industrially by the reports of the census bureau, covering five years. An increase in manufactures, in output, in the force employed, in the capital invested, in the wages—an increase in everything industrially is shown beyond that shown by other cities of the second class, except in child labor, and a decrease in the percentage of children employed more marked than in any of the other three cities, Covington, Newport and Lexington.

Covington alone excels Paducah as manufacturing city, and she is a suburb of Cincinnati. Her identity is practically lost in the overwhelming presence of the great city on the other side of the Ohio river, and, at that, Paducah's percentage of increase gives promise of rivaling Covington in a short time.

Paducah is simply bound to grow, but the question is now much will the people do to promote or retard that growth. There must be harmony and co-operation on the part of citizens in public measures. Let us cultivate a way of thinking and talking and acting that will cause outsiders to refer with admiration, to the "Paducah spirit."

It is easy to be an optimist in Paducah. Just remember the facts.

Of all the holidays of the year Thanksgiving is the most characteristically American, and, in a way, the most heartily enjoyed by the adult population. Fourth of July is the glory of the small boy. Christmas pleases the childish heart and makes the elders happy in the pleasures of their children. But Thanksgiving, more than the latter festival, has come to be observed as a home coming celebration, and there is a manifest endeavor in all grades of society to bring all members of the family together around the table on that occasion. Nearly all civilized races and nations have a harvest festival, but the American harvest home is a time of Thanksgiving, not only for good crops, which stand for a prosperous year, but for the great boon of liberty. It is a day when the children and the children's children come home to the parental roof, and there around a table laden with the good honest viands of America, listen to the voice of their human father raised in prayer and thanksgiving to the Father of all. Simplicity marks this festival, a simplicity enjoined on those who established the custom by necessity, and handed down in purity, unapproached, to the successive generations. The viands are almost prescribed by custom and the richest and the poorest of the nation, the chief executive and the lowest suffragist, all partake of the same kind of meat, with "all the trimmings." No delicacies of the French cuisine have taken the place of turkey and cranberry sauce in the menu. The poor are remembered, and missions and charitable institutions of Paducah, generously provided with good things through donations, go into the highways and byways and bring in the lame, the halt and the blind. And best of all, we all have something to be thankful for if only we be glad we are living.

The Sun is not at all concerned about the disposition or welfare of the madams of Kentucky avenue. We can not see that it is incumbent on the police to select a "spot" to which to "move" the women; nor can we bring ourselves to assume the attitude of regarding the "red light" as an established institution in Paducah, even in the light of a necessary evil." But the Sun is interested in the dire predictions of a "Well-known Man," who through the columns of a Democratic newspaper explains how the Democratic police "hold the white women in check." "They are not allowed to sit on the front porch and attract the attention of men passing. The porches are latticed in, and bill boards have been placed between most of the houses and the view from respectable sections." So, Paducah places her hands over her eyes and unblushing passes by this thing of evil sight. This horrid district exists—has existed for decades—in a place so conspicuous that latticed porches and bill boards form the scene barrier between it and "respectable sections." And worst of all, the police, who are supposed to suppress crime, are given credit for trying to hide this crime behind "bill boards." But let us go one with the expose: "The police have never been able to keep the negro women, a block farther back, in check. It is predicted that the dissolute and criminal negroes of Washington street will move a block nearer Broadway." Well, we have no comment to make on this arraignment of the police force. We have been inclined to consider Paducah rather free from crimes of violence; but, if the police are now unable to hold these negroes in check, why, they can be no less able to hold them in check when the white ones are gone.

So much has been said disparaging of the "Doubting Thomas," who didn't believe in anything he could not understand, that we have bred a worse evil—the fellow who believes everything he can not understand.

Theodore Barrett, the young Louisville millionaire, who lost $62,000 to Nat Goodwin, and then married Miss Brooklyn, must like New York.

The football season ends today and the census bureau may proceed to complete its tabulation of the vital statistics for the calendar year.

There appears to be no bickering among the creditors of F. W. Peery over the assets of his estate.

It is, perhaps, unnecessary to state that the drug stores will keep open as usual tonight.

THREE HUNDRED KILLED.

Roubrite Factory Explodes in Town in Germany.

Dortmund, Germany, Nov. 29.—A "roubrite" factory, situated close to the town of Annen, seven miles southwest of here, blew up yesterday (Wednesday) and the whole town was wiped from the face of the earth. It is estimated that 300 persons were killed and many wounded, but the exact number has not been ascertained. Roubrite is an explosive of high power, composed of saltpeter, ammonia, sulphur and other ingredients. It is not easily exploded by a blow and can be burned with safety in the open air. Its power is second to that of dynamite.

Lone Robber Confesses.

Marshall, Mo., Nov. 29.—Although only 20 years old, the robber who held up the Alton train single-handed near Slater Sunday night has been arrested several times for various crimes, and has served two years and a half in prison as a deserter from the army. All this was admitted today by the bandit, who made a statement revealing his identity, which he had attempted to conceal under a fictitious name, and saying that he was a Chicagoan. After being told by railroad detectives that they knew his name and history, the robber made a full confession, contradicting in part his statement of yesterday.

Relief for Rheumatism.

These damp days are hard on people afflicted with rheumatism, and relief is sought in all sorts of remedies.

There is no doubt in the minds of people who have suffered with the dread disease and those who have studied it closely that probably more relief can be secured from the Osteopathic treatment than any other.

Of course, some chronic cases won't yield to any treatment, but instances of cases of seven and eight years' standing yielding to three months' treatments can be cited. If you are suffering of rheumatism, I should like to discuss your case with you, examine you and tell you what I can do for you. With the dry hot air treatment that I use with osteopathy I am having very gratifying success with people you know well.

TO PUNISH MINORS IN SALOONS

Court Holds Municipalities Have Right to Impose Fine.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 29.—Municipalities have a legal right to pass an ordinance providing a fine for minors who visit saloons and drugshops, according to a decision of the Appellate court today. The original case came from Lewistown, where several boys were arrested under the village ordinance. The cases were dismissed in the lower court and the appellate court reverses that decision and remands them for a hearing. The appellate court says that municipalities have a right to enact laws to protect young men who may be enticed into saloons.

The board of lady managers received the guests and served light refreshments. The Home looked most attractive and the 30 small children now in the home were guests of honor who greatly enjoyed the occasion.

ECZEMA'S CAUSE

No one has any doubt of the cause of eczema and all skin diseases.

It is simply a case of looking through the microscope and actually seeing the cause—the tiny grains of uric acid lodged inside the skin.

With the cause so clearly seen, the cure is only common sense. Will you use your own good judgment?

HOW URIC ACID CAUSES HOW LIFE PLANT REMOVES ECZEMA

Running through your skin are millions of tiny blood vessels—much smaller than a hair.

These blood vessels are so small that when your blood is impure the skin becomes pimply, muddy complexion, eczema, or scrofula, the common sense cure is to get rid of the uric acid.

What is the result? The blood does get through, but it leaves the impurities—the uric acid—behind!

Then the blood forces the sharp sand-like grains of uric acid through the blood vessels and into the tissues of the skin itself.

LIFE PLANT gets rid of the uric acid by dissolving it out of the skin, and so gets rid of the cause of disease.

LIFE PLANT is a natural tonic and solvent of uric acid. It is the only common sense remedy for all diseases of the skin.

BEGINNINGS OF URIC ACID DISEASES

Uric acid brings muddy or sallow complexion, pimples, blotches, eczema and scrofula. It is the vital poison in impure blood. It brings headache, constipation, backache, menstrual disorders and womb and ovarian troubles.

If you suffer from eczema or any skin or blood disease, use your own good judgment. Take LIFE PLANT. Cure yourself in the common sense way. You can get LIFE PLANT from your druggist.

ANNUAL WORK OF CENSUS BUREAU

Outlined In Report By The Director at Washington.

Mr. North Recommends Enactment of Laws to Assist the Department in Work.

REPORT OF COTTON GINNED

Washington, D. C., Nov. 29.—Much of the work of the census bureau during the past year, as disclosed in the annual report of the Director, made public today related to the census of manufactures of 1905; to the preparation and publication of statistics on municipal finance and to the collection, tabulation and publication of prompt and accurate reports on the cotton crop. The report shows that the work cost the government $1,249,045, that sum being $235,667 less than congress appropriated for it.

Annual estimates of the population of the various states and territories are made by the census in order to establish death rates in the vital statistic reports.

Thirteen States

In 1905, thirteen states took enumerations of the population, the total being 25,793,236. The estimate of the census of the population of those states, at the same time, was 25,742,311, a difference of only 49,925.

Dr. North has planned, in connection with the annual municipal reports a series of statistical studies of important phases of municipal development, including parks, markets, paving, sewers, police and fire departments, baths, schools and libraries.

The director advocates the taking of a quinquennial census of agriculture.

The report says concerning the cotton reports that it has been the earnest desire of the bureau to bring its system of reporting to the highest possible degree of efficiency.

Director North recommends the enactment of more rigid laws to enable census officers to secure information.

Copies of census publication to the number of 655,668 were distributed during the year, 200,745 being bulletins and 399,000 cotton reports of the permanent census.

BRIBERY CASES

TO BE THOROUGHLY AIRED IN PITTSBURG COURTS.

Common Councilman and Railroad Man Arrested and Probe Will Be Used By Mayor.

Pittsburg, Nov. 29.—With the arrest of C. S. Cameron, president of the Tube City railway, and Common Councilman W. A. Martin, on a charge of conspiracy to defraud the railroad out of $70,000, this time the police authorities being the prosecutors, and their subsequent release in $10,000 bail each, the alleged connection of the council with the bribery scandal is to be thoroughly and publicly ventilated.

According to the evidence, said to be in possession of Mayor Guthrie, the councilmen were to act favorably on the ordinances desired to be passed by the Tube City railroad. The railroad was to distribute $70,000. Of this $40,000 was to go to the sixty-nine councilmen, while the remainder was to have been given to three other councilmen who acted as agents in the deal.

Tobacco Growers Resolve.

Cadiz, Ky., Nov. 29.—The Trigg County Tobacco association and the farmers' independent organization of Trigg county, known as "Hill Billes," both held meetings here yesterday. The association adopted the following resolutions in reference to the selection of the graders for the coming season:

Be it resolved by the Trigg county branch of the Planters' Protective association. That we will not submit to Mr. J. Edwards as a grader of our tobacco; that we do not intend that the old board shall grade our tobacco. We will accept Mr. Tom Milam, if a majority of the district want him.

That we are heartily in favor of two farmers being placed upon this board of graders.

The meeting of the independent organization was held behind closed doors, but after the meeting the adoption of the following resolution was made public:

Resolved. That in the future we will vote for men who are in favor of the enforcement of the law, regardless of their party affiliations.

We would all be happy enough in this world if we could only just think so.

CHAPTER II.
IT was the morning after the guardsman had returned to his duties. Eight o'clock had struck on the great clock of Versailles, and it was almost time for the monarch to rise. Servants, with clothes thrown over their arms, hustled down the passage which led to the antechamber. The young officer, who had been looking wistfully out of the window at some courtiers who were laughing and chatting on the terraces, turned sharply upon his heel and strode over to the white and gold door of the royal bedroom.

He had hardly taken his stand there before the handle was very gently turned from within, the door revolved noiselessly upon its hinges and a man slid silently through the aperture, closing it again behind him.

"Hush!" said he, with his finger to his thin, precise lips, while his whole clean shaven face and high arched brows were an entreating and a warning. "The king still sleeps."

The words were whispered from one to another among the group who had assembled outside the door. The speaker, who was M. Bontems, head valet-de-chambre, gave a sign to the officer of the guard and led him into the window alcove from which he had lately come.

"Good morning, Captain de Catinat. Who commands at the main guard?"

"Major de Brissac."

"And you will be here?"

"For four hours I attend the king."

"Very good. He gave me some instruction for the officer of the guard. He bade me to say that M. de Vivonne was not to be admitted to the grand lever. You are to tell him so."

"I shall do so."

"Then, should a note come from her—you understand me, the new one?"

"Mine de Maintenon?"

"Precisely. But it is more discreet not to mention names. Should she send a note, you will take it and deliver it quietly when the king gives you an opportunity."

"It shall be done."

"But if the other should come, as is possible enough—the other, you understand me, the former?"

"Mme. de Montespan."

"Ah, that soldierly tongue of yours, captain! Should she come, I say, you will gently bar her way, with courteous words, you understand, but on no account is she to be permitted to enter the royal room."

"Very good, Bontems."

"And now we have but three minutes." He strode through the rapidly increasing group of people in the corridor with an air of proud humility, as befitting a man who, if he was a valet, was at least the king of valets by being the valet of the king. Close by the door stood a line of footmen resplendent in their powdered wigs, red plush coats and silver shoulder knots. He turned the handle once more and slipped into the darkened room.

It was a large, square apartment, with two high windows upon the further-side, curtained across with priceless velvet hangings. In one corner a narrow couch with a rug thrown across it showed where the faithful Bontems had spent the night.

In the very center of the chamber there stood a large four post-bed, with curtains of Gobelin tapestry looped back from the pillow. A square of polished rails surrounded it, leaving a space some five feet in width all round between the inclosure and the bedside.

As Bontems passed noiselessly across the room, his feet sinking into the mosslike carpet, there was the heavy, close smell of sleep in the air, and he could hear the long, thin breathing of the sleeper. He passed through the opening in the rails and stood, watch in hand, waiting for the exact instant when the iron routine of the court demanded that the monarch should be roused. Beneath him, from under the costly green coverlet of oriental silk, half buried in the fluffy valenciennes lace which edged the pillow, there protruded a round black bristle of close cropped hair, with the profile of a curving nose and petulant lip outlined against the white background. The valet snapped his watch and bent over the sleeper.

"I have the honor to inform your majesty that it is half past six," said he.

"Ah!" The king slowly opened his large dark brown eyes, made the sign of the cross and kissed a little dark reliquary which he drew from under his nightdress. Then he sat up in bed.

"Did you give my orders to the officer of the guard, Bontems?" he asked.

"Yes, sire."

"Who is on duty?"

"Major de Brissac at the main guard and Captain de Catinat in the corridor."

"De Catinat! Ah, the young man who stopped my horse at Fontainebleau. I remember him. You may give the signal, Bontems."

The chief valet walked swiftly across to the door and threw it open. In rushed the officer of the ovens and the four red coated, white winged footmen, ready handed, silent footed, each intent upon his own duties. The one seized upon Bontems' rug and couch and in an instant had whipped them off into an antechamber, another had carried away the silver taper stand, while a third drew back the great curtains of stamped velvet and let a flood of light into the apartment.

They were hardly gone before a more august group entered the bedchamber. Two walked together in front, the one

CITY ENGINEER GAINS HIS POINT

TWO OVERFLOW OUTLETS OF NEW SEWER CUT OUT

General Council and Board of Public Works Meet Sanitary Engineer John Alvord.

NEW SEWER DISTRICT'S COST

The boards of councilmen, aldermen and public works met in joint session yesterday afternoon. Mayor D. A. Yelise presiding, and heard the explanations of Sanitary Engineer John W. Alvord, of Chicago, relative to his plans for sewer district No. 3. The boards instructed the engineer to go ahead with his plans and complete them in detail in time to enable the city to start on the district in the spring. Engineer Alvord estimates the cost of the system at $240,000.

The main point under discussion was the outlet. Provisions were made in preliminary sketches for the overflows into ravines and creeks. Engineer L. A. Washington opposed it, because in a few years all small ravines will be filled and houses built on them. City Solicitor James Campbell also warned against going over private property. He stated that the property could be condemned only for street and alley purposes.

The discussion lasted over an hour. Engineer Alvord drew a rough map of the district and returned to his home in Chicago last night understanding exactly what is desired—one outlet through a ravine or hollow emptying into Bradshaw creek on Broadway beyond Fountain avenue. This cuts out the proposed outlets through ravines.

It will be a combined water and sanitary system. It will require some time to complete the survey and engineers will arrive in ten days to begin the work.

FOLK MRS. MYERS' ONLY HOPE

Federal Supreme Court Refuses More Time for Filing Record.

Kansas City Nov. 29.—A reprieve from Governor Folk is now the only hope of Mrs. Agnes Myers and Frank Hottman her lover, under sentence of death for the murder of the woman's husband at Liberty. Justice Brewer of the federal supreme court at Washington today refused to allow Mrs. Myers' attorneys more time in which to file a complete record of the case. The time as originally fixed will expire Wednesday. Governor Folk granted respite to Hottman and the woman until December 10, and unless he again interferes the execution will have to take place. Mrs. Myers, when told of Justice Brewer's action today, said that she was still confident some power would intervene.
